

Mix-d:

Multiple Heritage Project

Mix-d: Professionals
North London Business Park, Barnet, London.

Specialist mixed-race training event for everyone working with young people.

Are you a professional working with young people

Want to really understand the complex issues around 'mixed-race'

Want to learn practical strategies and the right terminology to connect with young people

Who Should Attend?

Professionals working with young people, whether in education, criminal justice service, looking after care, youth work and foster care.

Where

North London Business Park
Barnet
London

When

20th October 2009

Key Speakers

Bradley Lincoln, Dr Chamion Cabellero, Denise Williams

Cost

£175 Special reduction to £125 if booked before 15th September 2009.

Aim of the day

Learn more about our work with young people across the country.

- What young people have to say on the subject.
- Six things to understand when developing positive racial literacy.
- Input from three leading specialists.
- Do's and don'ts for developing student voice.
- Creating an action plan for your organisation.
- The 'latest' street terminology.
- Useful books and resources.
- Free DVD from our 1st National Youth Conference.

Visit www.multipleheritage.co.uk to book your place. Alternatively, you can email emily@multipleheritage.co.uk or call 07736 641919